Chapter One: The Town where it all Began

Story first takes place in the rural town of Saun, farm houses, cowboys, the sweet taste of nature, horses everywhere, just like a normal Wild West Town. But that's the positive side of the town. There is always a catch, there are bandits everywhere, pickpockets and gunshots day and night. Mostly night, you wouldn't want to go out late at night in Saun.

Residents Seldom get the peaceful sleep they want. One night, there were multiple stamps of several horses running and cowboys whipping their lassos, almost out of breath are two boys being chased. Riko and Yudah.

*Flashback - Riko and Yudah are bestfriends, their friendship first began when Yudah got caught stealing elderberries from a vendor (Grenge). Grenge was beating the thief out of Yudah when out of nowhere a corn bread hard as a rock hit the vendor's head. Riko immediately grabs riko's arms and led him to his secret hide out somewhere along the narrow lanes. He gave yudah the food he has left and this was the time yudah found out he wasn't alone in this cruel world and the long wait to find someone who he can fully trust is finally over.

Riko and Yudah since that day they met started working together just to survive, Yudah being the older one, stood up as the bigger brother and taught riko a lot about swift and how important your agility is considering the place they're living in, the boys are always spotted along the rails heading out town, they would wait for the train to pass by, their dream is to board that train and to get out of that town but they always find themselves being kicked out just before they reach the entrance of the train station.

One day, while the yudah and riko are planning to rob a vendor, they heard deep voices from hooded men in a distance, they overheard the conversation and found out that the men will have a secret meeting at the town center, the boys just knew this men are from the wealthy part of the town and they would bargain and trade high quality and highly priced goods.

The boys immediately hid themselves as the hooded men leave. Yudah told Riko their plan and as soon as it went dark, the boys already have something under their sleeves, they snuck off behind the cart wheel and saw multiple men carrying precious goods and were taking them to a cave just at the edge of town, by the time the trading was finished, riko and yudah followed the last man transferring the left over goods to the cave, they reached the cave and when the man locked the door which leads to the inside of the cave, the boys waited for about 10 minutes to make sure no one is around anymore, yudah reached for something from his back up and it was a bomb/explosive, with a plan, they

They set up the explosive and immediately took cover, 10 seconds passed and the doors led to destruction and quickly the fire was spreading all over the cave, the boys were pretty sure the whole town heard the explosion so they need to hurry, sweating and really nervous the boys are putting what they can carry to their bags and to their hands, then they rushed through the exit and surprised they stumbled upon a cowboy with shotgun pointing to their heads, Riko didn't know what to do and when he look at Yudah, Yudah said "I'm sorry" then he quickly pulls out a rifle and shoots the cowboy, riko was startled and doesn't know what to do, they made a vow and a promise to each other that they would just steal and not kill anyone. Yudah then grabbed riko's hands and run through the whole town with multiple men and horses chasing them.

Riko was still mind blown from what happened, full of disappointment as his bestfriend just killed a man, when the boys reached the park beside the train station, riko pushed yudah and threw all the goods he was carrying at him, he was full of tears and then he ran heading to the accelerating train, leaving his bestfriend yudah screaming "Riko! where are you going, I couldn't carry all of these", Riko didn't look back, he was just looking at the train and was able to reach its rear, when was safely boarded from the train, it was the moment he looked back, he saw yudah struggling to carry all the stolen goods, but yudah was slow enough, the cowboys simultaneously whipped him with their lassos and it was the last painful thing riko saw that night.

Chapter Two: Hikoh City

Riko is now a Police Officer from Hikoh City, Hikoh City was the last place the train reached, far away from Sau, Riko was trained and is now serving the government, Riko now has a wife and a kid. He continuously love and support them. Years passed when a tragedy began, explosions around the city started occurring and riko and his squad had no clue on how to end it, weeks past then the mastermind of the explosion decided revealed himself and Riko was shocked, the mastermind along with hundred or bandits behind him we're carrying bombs and explosives, the mastermind was his ex-bestfriend, Yudwin Judah Haden, yudah spits his first words to riko after 16 years, it was
